

Call for papers

Ghent University's 9th Workshop on Empirical Macroeconomics will take place as an online event on 24-25 May 2022 through the Zoom platform.

The aim of this two-day workshop is to bring together researchers working on topics in empirical macroeconomics and macroeconometrics to present and discuss their ongoing research. More specifically, we invite contributions related to macroeconomic policy, business cycle analysis, economic growth, and macroeconometrics. Further information about the event and the programs of the workshop's previous editions can be found on the workshop website.

The workshop will start at 1:00 pm CET on Tuesday 24 May and will finish around 7:00 pm CET on Wednesday 25 May. 50 minutes of time will be devoted per paper.

The submission deadline is 9:00 pm CET on Friday 8 April 2022. Papers should be sent to empiricalmacro@ugent.be. Authors of accepted papers will be notified by 22 April 2022.

Workshop organizers are Selien De Schryder, Gerdie Everaert, Freddy Heylen, Yasin Kursat Önder, Gert Peersman and Ewoud Quaghebeur.
