

Call for papers

Ghent University's 11th Workshop on Empirical Macroeconomics will take place on 27-28 May 2024 in Ghent (Belgium).

The aim of this two-day workshop is to bring together researchers working on topics in macroeconomics to present and discuss their ongoing research. More specifically, we invite contributions related to macroeconomic policy, business cycle analysis, economic growth, and macroeconometrics. Further information about the event and the programs of the workshop's previous editions can be found on the workshop website.

The workshop will start at 9:00 am CET on Monday 27 May and will finish around 2:00 pm CET on Tuesday 28 May. 50 minutes of time will be devoted per paper. A limited budget is available for the reimbursement of (economy class) traveling and hotel costs for participants without institutional funding or own travel budget. The request for reimbursement must be stated explicitly when submitting the paper.

The submission deadline is 9:00 pm CET on Friday 12 April 2024. Papers should be sent to empiricalmacro@ugent.be. Authors of accepted papers will be notified by 22 April 2024.

Workshop organizers are Selien De Schryder, Gerdie Everaert, Freddy Heylen, Yasin Kursat Önder, and Gert Peersman.
